Make your own apology from your heart

Mr Popcorn butter Click to see attachment

Mr Popcorn butter 4:49 PM

Say sorry for all of these

Mr Popcorn butter Yeah, cause of you cursing and being disrespectful to James

Mr Popcorn butter 4:49 PM

And this

Leo Winter 4:51 PM

Hey James,

I want to say something that's been on my heart for a long time. I'm truly sorry — not just for one moment, but for every time I've let you down. For all the things I did wrong, all the words I said that hurt, the times I was selfish, distant, careless, or didn't show up for you the way a real friend should.

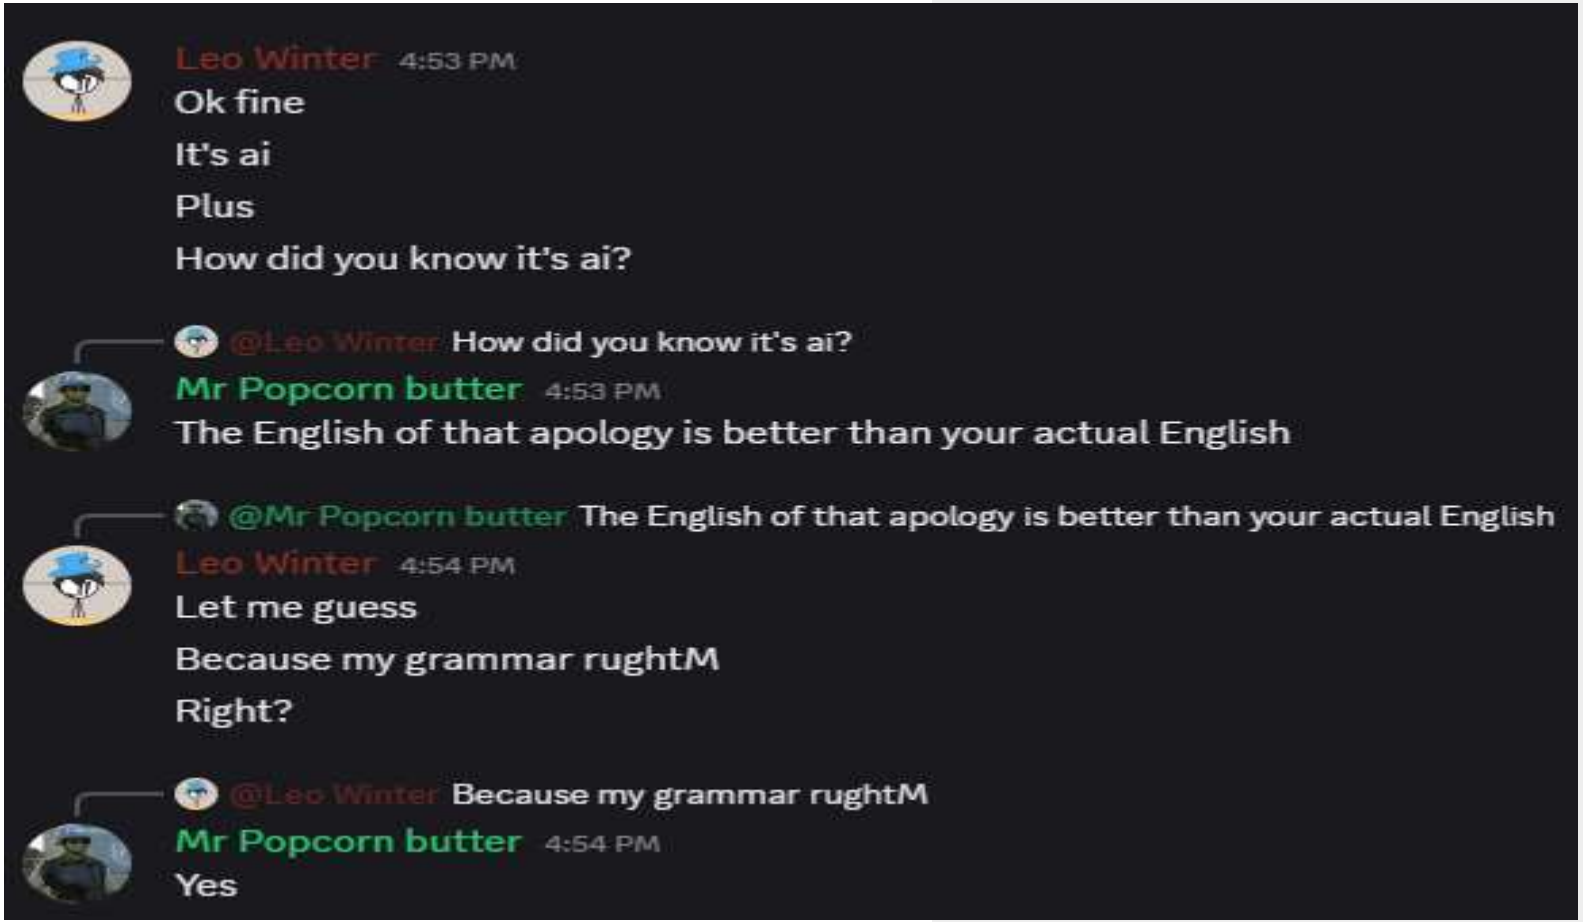
I know it's not just about what happened recently — it's about everything that built up, every time I broke your trust, disappointed you, or made you feel like you didn't matter. I carry all of that, and I regret it deeply.

I've made mistakes. Some I didn't even fully understand at the time, and others I knew but didn't stop myself from repeating. I hate that my actions might've made you feel hurt, unimportant, or betrayed. You didn't deserve any of that.

You've been a good friend to me — more than I ever deserved sometimes — and I took that for granted. I'm not writing this expecting instant forgiveness or a quick fix. I just want you to know that I recognize everything, I take full responsibility, and I truly want to be better. Not just say it, but show it.

Whatever happens from here, I'm grateful for the times we shared. If there's even a small chance to rebuild that trust, I'll do the work it takes.

With all the honesty and care I have,



Leo Winter 4:53 PM
Ok fine
